Happy New Year D. Thank you for being the best AJ in the State and for being my rock in the hard times. I hope I have made you proud when you have been attacked publicly, albeit an insignificnt little little bunch of gnats, because I treasure the effort you took when I was attacked in the past. We have seen much happiness and our share of sorrow in the past 19 years but we have always weathered the storms D. I look forward to our last year together at the
